DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This action is in response to the amendment filed 02/27/2006. Claims 1-8 and 11-16 have been amended; claims 9-10 have been cancelled. The specification has also been amended.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to the rejection(s) of claims 1-16 under 35 USC 101, see page 9, have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's amendments have necessitated new grounds of rejection that are not based on prior art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 1-8 and 11-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because they are not directed to a practical application. With respect to claim 1, the claim is directed to a method for generating a manifest; however, the generated manifest lacks any type of executable instructions or anything necessarily causing functionality to occur. Since the claim is a method of generating non-functional descriptive material, it is an abstract idea rather than steps with a useful, concrete and tangible result. Claims that are not specifically addressed are rejected by virtue of their dependency.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Subject to the 101 rejections, claims 1-8 and 11-16 would be allowable over the prior art of record.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter. The present invention is directed to a method for generating a manifest that includes one or more export statements that allows a secret associated with the application to be exported to another application. More specifically, independent claim 1 identifies the uniquely distinct feature: each export statement comprises an identifier of the manifest, an identifier of the manifest that corresponds to the trusted application to which the secret to be exported to, and a digital signature over both identifiers. The closest prior art, Arnold (6,175,924), also discloses an application certificate that include an export statement allowing protected data associated with one application to be exported to other applications of the same family. However, Arnold does not teach that the export statement comprises an identifier of the manifest, an identifier of the manifest that corresponds to the trusted application to which the secret to be exported to, and a digital signature over both identifiers. The prior art, taken either singly or in combination, fails to anticipate or fairly suggest the limitations of applicant's independent claim, in such a manner that a rejection under 35 U.S.C 102 or 103 would be proper. The claimed invention is therefore considered to be in condition for allowance as being novel and nonobvious over prior art.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
